

FIGHTING BIG INSURANCE FOR NEW MEXICANS!

Rafael R. Valbuena

Personal Injury Attorney

Rafael R. Valbuena is a personal injury attorney licensed in New Mexico and Texas. With more than twenty years of experience, he represents individuals and families harmed by someone else's negligence and guides them through a legal process that can feel complex and overwhelming. Fluent in English and Spanish, Rafael works to help clients feel informed, valued, and protected throughout their case.

Personal Injury Experience

Rafael has handled a wide range of cases, including car accidents, truck accidents, slip-and-fall injuries, premises liability, and wrongful death. His experience allows him to approach each matter with practical judgment and determination while helping clients pursue a favorable outcome based on the circumstances of the case.

Practical and Determined Representation

Rafael is known for clear communication, a practical approach, and tenacious advocacy. Through negotiation or litigation, he works with determination to protect the interests of injured people, including in difficult cases that require persistence and close attention to detail.

Direct Client Attention

Rafael believes in providing direct guidance, consistent attention, and committed representation from the beginning of a case through its resolution. For him, helping an injured person also means providing the confidence that comes from knowing someone is standing beside them during a difficult time.
